Subcommittee reports:

CAPITAL AREA UNITY SUBCOMMITTEE: Unity committee met today. Our January dance was a success. Today we discussed our final plans for learners day. Starting in March, the unity dance will be moving to a new location 2940 N 7th st. in Harrisburg. We will be here on the third Saturday of every month following. We have also found a location for unity day. It will be held at 250 Harris St in Harrisburg. It will be held on the 2nd Saturday in April (the 13th). We will still be having a regular monthly dance on the third Saturday. We would like the area's suggestion on how to handle the startup money for the Unity Day t shirts. Flyers for all the upcoming events and changes were handed out at area today and will be available at MARLCNA. TFLUS- Unity Committee.

UNITY TREASURERS' REPORT: See Attached.

LITERATURE: Today we sold $560.05 in lit. Our order from Free State was $572.35 We are turning $565.35 into the treasure. We will take steps to remove Delbrook Rd/ New Cumberland address for our free state account. Tfamts, Steve H- lit chair

POLICY: Waiting on marathon committee guidelines to be approved so we can add them to our subcommittee policies. Working on 30 minutes speech for learners day. Received no feedback on draft of executive policy. Tfamts, Katie K- policy chair.

PUBLIC RELATIONS: It was brought to my attention that there are a couple of mistakes on the website meetings listed. We will have to talk to Brandon. I was contacted by Matt and Jose about bilingual meeting at 100 S Cameron st. I told them that since this meeting is being held in the same place, the facility is already aware of any public relation policy. Public relations presentation at 3 p.m. at learners day.
