PUBLIC RELATIONS: We conducted a phone line orientation workshop on unity day. Turn out was minimal We were able to add 5 new contacts to the phone list. Website will be updated this evening after being checked against the April 2012 meeting list. We are also exploring ways to reach out to potential suffering addicts who are perhaps being shielded from this program. For example, people with a strict religious adherence that perhaps believe NA is another religion or a religious deviation. We are also going to come up with new flyers or posters to distribute in the community and hang up around our area. Brandon R.
