PUBLIC RELATIONS: The area website gets a lot of traffic – business solicitations and organizations asking to put their link on it. Dex Media sent a renewal notice for us to contact them by 10-26-17, or the contract would renew at the listed rate. It is still at $10.00 month. I believe that the consensus from last month's discussion of this was to keep utilizing the resource. I will change the billing to paperless so there are no more invoice charge of $15.00/month for them to mail it. Gaudenzia has requested for us to be at March's conference. I will forward this to whoever the new sub-committee chair person is at December's elections. Calls into our helpline are consistent. Next Monday a small panel of members will be sharing at Crossroads Middle School. There is nothing else upcoming for the rest of this year. I started to report/correct a few of the websites that come up when we are googled, as well as meeting on the world app that no longer exist in our Area. The Area Policy has been uploaded on website. – Chris W.
